Submit a theme

- Note that the theme name must be unique; if there is an existing name, a warning will be shown at the "Theme name" input.
- The theme submission will have a "pending" status until the details and files are checked by site admins.
- A wiki page will be created with the same name as the theme. The page will be empty while the status is "pending".
- After the details and files are checked, the theme's page will show the theme information, including the demo and download links.
