The screenshot shows the Tiki.org homepage using the Amelie theme. The header is red with white text. Below it, there's a banner featuring a computer monitor, a keyboard, and a cup of coffee. The main content area has a dark teal background. It includes sections for "Table and accordion", "Form sample", and "Cards/modules". The "Cards/modules" section contains a card titled "Split Changes" with a small image of a historical ship. At the bottom, there's a "Switch Theme" bar and a "Git detail" footer.
